Elite Genetics has been issued an USDA/APHIS import permit for 3,000 straws of sheep semen from the United Kingdom. This list contains rams already imported and more importations are in progress. Importation of live sheep and embryos into the U.S. is banned. Importation of frozen sheep semen has been reopened following intense negotiation by Dr. Dennis and Deb Gourley. Purchasers of UK sheep semen must be enrolled in the Voluntary Scrapie Flock Certification Program before they can use the semen. This may be achieved after the order is placed by contacting the Federal Veterinarian in your state. This is mandatory. The imported UK sheep semen may be used only in the United States. According to USDA/APHIS regulations, the semen shipped to the US can not be reshipped to Canada or any other country. How long can you store the semen? The 1/2 life of semen stored properly in liquid nitrogen (-320 F or -196 C) is 10,000 years. We can store 10-20 breedings for $0.70/month. This cost is in addition to the purchase of the semen. Minimum order is 5 breedings per owner. One straw is enough to breed one ewe. The price includes all semen collection costs, housing of ram, blood work, health papers, import permit, shipping and Elite Genetics expenses. To purchase UK semen you need to do the following: 1. Request and return a UK semen purchase form; 2. Include all payment with the form. Note: All semen orders and payments are through Elite Genetics. The UK frozen semen was processed by Edinburgh Genetics.

This Southdown has been officially measured: Length: 39 inches; height at the shoulder: 31 inches. He was weighed before mating and was 140 kg. He was unbeaten as a lamb and was Champion Ram Hogget at the 1996 Royal Show, all breeds Ram Hogget at the Central Howkes Bay, Supreme Champion all breeds at Horowhenua, AP Show and Masterton, AP Show 1997. I have been breeding Southdowns for 24 years and I consider this sheep to be what the meat industry in this country has been looking for.
